Sophie De Goey (she/her)
VERONICA SAWYER
 4TH YEAR, ENGLISH & CREATIVE WRITING

Sophie is a lifelong storyteller: a novelist, songwriter, and playwright, and began her training in voice and theatre at age 5, having been inspired to pursue opera because of her love of "Bohemian Rhapsody" by Queen. "Heathers" is both her favourite movie and musical, and Veronica has been her dream role since 2016. In real life, Sophie often emulates Winona Ryder's style. She is so honoured to be a part of this production, especially with such a talented cast and crew! Sophie has two rescue rabbits at home, Buttercup and Benny, who she does NOT patronize.

William Cooper (he/him)
JASON "J.D." DEAN
 3RD YEAR, NANOSCIENCE

William has always been passionate about music, theatre, and entertaining other. His first exposure to Heathers was from a production held by CCP years prior in which his brother was a cast member. Since witnessing the dark comedy for the first time, he was absolutely hooked and determined to be in his own production of Heathers one day, not only for his own enjoyment, but also to show up his brother (take that James)! He is absolutely beyond thrilled to be a part of this production with such an amazing team. He hopes you enjoy the show!

Isabella Lánci (she/her)
 DOUBLE MAJOR, ARTH & SART

Bella Lánci hails from Sudbury, Ontario and is an artist over many genres. Her artistic journey has included musicals, symphonies, Kiwanis festivals and studies in both voice and dance. Though Bella loves the spotlight she also enjoys being covered in moss and laying in a pond like a little frog. Passionate about a myriad of things, Bella is excited to return to the world of theatre in such a dynamic role and will treasure the experiences that joining CCP has brought to her this year. She hopes you enjoy the show and leave craving corn nuts...BQ of course!

Ishani Sanyal (she/they)
HEATHER DUKE
 4TH YEAR, NEUROSCIENCE

Ishani has long had a passion for the performing arts! They have performed in, stage managed, directed, and designed multiple productions over the years. After directing CCP's musical production of Freaky Friday, Ishani is happy to be back on stage in her 4th and final CCP production. Ishani is deeply excited to see what the future holds with LaMira Rose Theatre Collective, founded by her longtime partner in crime, Mars Russell. They hope to continue to share beautiful stories through her love of directing, and she is excited for you to see the show!

REHEARSAL TEAM

Lily Mammel (she/her)
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
1ST YEAR, NEUROSCIENCE

As a newcomer to CCP, Lily is honoured to be your Assistant Director this year. Bringing the vision to life has been an incredible experience, and Lily can't wait for you to see all the hard work that everyone has put into this production. Break a leg!

Emily Steers (she/her)
VOCAL DIRECTOR

Emily Steers is a soprano, conductor, and voice teacher based in Guelph. Having recently completed her MA in community music, she is now keeping busy growing her active voice studio, working in classical, musical theatre, folk and pop styles. She is thrilled to be back with CCP for a second year as vocal director.

Jorja Hall (she/her)
ASSISTANT STAGE MANAGER, SOCIAL MEDIA LIAISON
2ND YEAR, MARKETING MANAGEMENT

Jorja has returned to Curtain Call for her second year! Jorja has loved theatre since she was young and knew that when she came to Guelph she wanted to join Curtain Call. Last year she was cast in Freaky Friday as the loveable younger brother Fletcher but this year she's taking on the role of ASM! When she isn't running around backstage you can find her at karaoke or attending concerts such as Harry Styles or Conan Gray. She found such a family in CCP and will continue to be involved one way or another in the coming years.

Sophia Lavergne (she/her)
ASSISTANT STAGE MANAGER
3RD YEAR, THEATRE STUDIES

This is Sophia's second year with CCP and she is so thankful to be working with the rehearsal team this year! Sophia was on stage in last year's Freaky Friday as computer-geek and best-friend, Hannah. This year, she is beyond excited to be learning all there is to know about being an ASM. Outside of theatre and school, Sophia loves to bake, cook, play music, and hang out with her friends and family.

CHOREOGRAPHER
3RD YEAR MARKETING MANAGEMENT
MINOR: FAMILY & CHILD STUDIES

Hayley is thrilled to be a part of the CCP team for the second year, but first year as choreographer! She has been dancing since the age of 3, and is still exploring her passion. She is trained in all styles of dance, but jazz and tap are her favorite! Before University, she was cast in her school's productions of Willy Wonka, Wizard of Oz and Peter Pan. While she has experience teaching dance, this is her first time choreographing for a musical! Hayley has thoroughly enjoyed sharing her love of dance by teaching the cast!

Lindsey Gallagher (she/her)
ASSISTANT CHOREOGRAPHER
3RD YEAR, ARTS & SCIENCE

Lindsey is so excited to be helping with choreography for Curtain Call's production of Heathers. She has been dancing since she was four years old, and is currently a member of the Guelph Tap Pak competitive tap dance team. This is her first time choreographing for a musical and her third production with CCP. She hopes you enjoy the show!

Saige Cunniffe (she/her)
ASSISTANT VOCAL DIRECTOR U/S MARTHA
1ST YEAR, PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTRY

Saige is so excited to be working with CCP for the first time! She is a soprano in the University of Guelph Symphonic Choir, and has several years of experience in singing and musical theatre. She has had so much fun learning and teaching the music of Heathers, as well as working with the incredible cast and rehearsal team. Saige is especially grateful to Emily Steers for her support and encouragement as she takes on the Assistant Vocal Director role. Saige looks forward to future years with CCP!

Sara Syzmanski (she/her)

LIGHTING DIRECTOR

3RD YEAR, THEATRE STUDIES; MINOR: POLITICAL SCIENCE

Sara is back for her second year as lighting director for CCP. She has a passion for theatre on and off the stage and loves highlighting all of the talented actors with her lighting designs. In her free time, Sara works with Showworks, an audio and lighting company (this year's sponsor for tech), and when she's not in a theatre, she loves travelling, singing, and trying different coffees to feed her caffeine addiction. She's excited to continue her work with the amazing people in CCP and hopes you enjoy the show!

Joshua Lonuzzo (he/him)

AUDIO DIRECTOR

3RD YEAR, ECOLOGY; MINOR: APPLIED GEOMATICS

This is Joshua's second year as audio director with CCP. He has been working for 8 years with audio and video production. When he's not in school or working, Josh competes in Nordic skiing and loves photography, hiking, and anything outdoors. He's excited to be working with the amazing cast and crew to make Heathers sound great and hopes everyone enjoys the show!

Verena Brysch (she/her)

SET DESIGNER

2ND YEAR, BIOCHEMISTRY

Since Verena (or V, as everyone calls her) can barely even whistle in tune, she's putting her skills to use by designing the sets for Heathers. Her favorite colour is pink, she loves breathing in cold fresh air, jumping in clear lakes, making fires with her brother, and doing anything that gets her adrenaline pumping. She hopes you love the show as much as she loved building the sets with her crew (the best crew of all time)!

Riley Ongena (she/her)

SET DRESSER

BIOMEDICAL ENGINEERING

Although having been involved in theatre production in the past, this is Riley's first year with Curtain Call Productions and as Set Dressing Executive. She has a passion for the fine details of art and enjoys expressing her creativity whenever possible. When she is not studying or covered in paint, she loves playing video games in the company of her fiancé and cats.

Grey Scott (she/her)

PROPS MASTER

1ST YEAR, HISTORY

This is Grey's first production with CCP and first time they're taking on Heads of Props. They are very excited to expand their skills with Heathers. They enjoyed being able to experiment with different things and interacting with so many people. When Grey isn't working, they enjoy listening to music, hanging out with their friends and team and planning events for others. They want to thank their props crew for all their help and for being ready to go. Grey is very appreciative of their friends, family and their Quadball team for their encouragement and ideas.

Kylie Orr (they/she)

COSTUME DESIGNER

1ST YEAR, ONE HEALTH

Kylie has been involved in musical theatre for 10+ years, typically performing, and they are excited to contribute in a new way. Kylie is a huge Winona Ryder fan, an avid crafter and an amateur hand-poke tattoo artist. They would like to thank the CCP family for being so welcoming and supportive! They hope you enjoy the show as much as they have enjoyed playing dress up in their living room in preparation.

Cassidy Boyle (she/her)

HAIR & MAKEUP

3RD YEAR, CRIMINAL JUSTICE & PUBLIC POLICY

Cassidy is a freelance cosmetic artist with a passion for conceptualizing makeup looks. This is her first year with Curtain Call, and her first experience as a Hair and Makeup Executive. Although specializing in makeup, she loves art in general and spends her free time painting, sketching, and doodling. She has three cats (Gary, Fizz, and Maple) and lives with her little sister, Rhena. She hopes to progress her MUA skills to someday work in SFX for media production.
